

Bonfire Night is celebrated with fireworks, marshmallows and mushy peas. We made our own firework painting using the splat and swirl techniques.

Eid is celebrated by Muslims. Special foods are eaten and people get mehndi patterns on their hands. We made Eid cookies shaped like moons and stars.

Hanukkah is celebrated by Jewish people. A special candle called a menorah is lit. There are 8 candles which represent each night of Hannukah.

Christmas celebrates the birth of Jesus. He was born in Bethlehem and the kings, camels, donkey and shepherds came to see him.

WHAT DO OTHERS AND I CELEBRATE?

Diwali is the Festival of Light. It is celebrated by making diwa lamps. We made our own diwa lamps using clay.

Christmas can be celebrated by giving presents and decorating a Christmas tree.

Lunar New Year is an Asian celebration. It is celebrated by wearing red, eating special foods and doing a dragon dance. We know the zodiac story of how the animals raced across the river.
